

FAIRnet

THE EUROPEAN FAIRSTART PROJECT'S NETWORK FOR INFORMATION, COOPERATION AND EXPLOITATION

Supported by the European Lifelong Learning Programme

Dear recipient of the FAIRstart Newsletter!

As a recipient of the FAIRstart Newsletter you have had the opportunity to follow the project since it started in December 2008.

We are approaching the end of the project and we hope you have the opportunity to participate in the Final Conference during which we will present the project results and plans for dissemination of the training programme that has been developed.

As you know the programme has been developed for the use of institutions and foster families working with orphans.

THE CONFERENCE PROGRAM – DAY ONE

10.00 - 10.20: Welcoming by the Turkish hosts
 10.20 - 10.35: The need for a FAIRstart project, by Project manager Ms Bodil Mygind Madsen
 10.35 -11.10: Challenges for learning in institutions and foster families in Turkey, Romania and Spain.
 11.10 - 11.30: Coffee break
 11.30 - 12.00 Deprivation, attachment disorder and its consequences.
 The research base of the project
 by FAIRstart expert clin. psych Mr Niels Peter Rygaard,.
 12.00 - 12.30. The FAIRstart project: Organisation, partnership, results, future perspectives and dissemination by Project manager Bodil Mygind Madsen
 12.30 – 13.30: Presentation of the FAIRstart training material and program by FAIRstart expert clin. psych Mr Niels Peter Rygaard and Project manager Ms Bodil Mygind Madsen
 13.30-15.00: Lunch
 15.00 – 15.45: Pilot test results: How does FAIRstart work in practice?, by MA Bodil Lomholt Husted, Argo Consult 15.45-16.30: Reaching potential users. Open session: Reflections and ideas for dissemination and valorisation - in plenum
 16.45 – 17.00: Summing-up on day one

THE CONFERENCE PROGRAM – DAY TWO

09.30-10.30 Presentations:
 "Development or disappearance of orphanages in Europe – How will Europe care for children without parents in the future"? Key note speaker will be announced later.
 "The Turkish social system and network for children who lost their parents - initiatives and institutions" Keynote speaker will be announced later.
 11.00- 13.00 Workshops:
 - Play the game
 - Learning in practice
 - Orphanages and migration
 - Planning a joint action/event for November 20th, International Day of Children developing slogans, messages, posters etc.
 - Theory and research in the FAIRstart Project
 - Role plays – means of learning
 13.00-13.20: End of conference.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE FAIRSTART CONFERENCE

The conference takes place Tuesday and Wednesday September 14th and 15th, 2010 at Hotel Prince in Istanbul, Turkey.
www.hotelprince.com

SIGN UP

You can sign-up for the conference on the website created for the conference: www.fairstart.net/conference
 Registration deadline is September 6th 2010.

WHAT IS FREE OF CHARGE?

Participation in the conference, lunch on September 14th and 15th and dinner on September 14th are free of charge. The conference is held with support from the European Union.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO PAY FOR YOURSELF?

The participants will pay their own travel expenses and lodging. Hotel Prince, where the conference takes place, offers the following prizes:
 Single room: 60 Euro
 Double room: 70 Euro
 Triple room: 100 Euro
 You can book the rooms in advance on the hotel website:
www.hotelprince.com

INVITE FAIRSTART

Any organisation working in the field of improving the basic human care for orphaned children are welcome to invite the FAIRstart project to contribute to different kinds of events: conferences, meetings, workshops, both national and international. The conditions for participating will be discussed for each case separately.

FAIRSTART CONTACTS →

International coordinator Bodil Mygind
sskaBMM@sosuaarhus.dk

Training concept, research, professional knowledge:
 Clinical Psychologist, Dr. Niels Peter Rygaard
npr@erhvervspsykologerne.dk

European programme and strategical matters, media production:
 EU project manager and multimedia project manager Jan Gejel
jan.gejel@skolekom.dk

We look forward to seeing in Istanbul!

Yours sincerely,
 Bodil Mygind Madsen - Project Manager